

The Violence Against Women Act §304 (VAWA) was originally enacted in 1994 to address concerns with violent crimes and violence against women. T

The major relevant provisions of VAWA are:

- A requirement for institutions to maintain statistics about the number of incidents of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking that meet the specific definition of those terms
- Requirement for institutions to provide primary prevention programs to incoming students and new employees that must include: a statement that the institution prohibits the crimes of dating and domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking; the definition of consent in reference to sexual activity; a description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention; information on risk reduction; and information on the institution's policies and procedures after a sex offense occurs; and an obligation to describe all of these within the College's Annual Security Report
- A requirement to provide ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns for students and employees and to describe these in the annual security report
- A requirement to describe each type of disciplinary proceeding used by the institution; the steps, anticipated timelines, and decision-making process for each type of disciplinary proceeding that includes how to file a disciplinary complaint, and how the institution determines which type of proceeding to use based on the circumstances of an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking
- A requirement for institutions to describe the range of protective (supportive) measures that the institution may offer
- A requirement for institutions to provide a prompt, fair, and impartial disciplinary proceeding in which: officials are appropriately trained and do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against any party; the Complainant and Respondent have equal opportunities to have others present, including an Advisor of their choice; the Complainant and Respondent receive simultaneous notification, in writing, of the results of the hearing and any available appeal procedures; the procedures completed in a reasonable prompt timeframe; the Complainant and Respondent are given timely notice of meetings at which one or the other or both may be present; and the Complainant and the Respondent and their Advisors are given timely and equal access to information that will be used during formal and informal disciplinary meetings and hearings

There are a lot of similarities between Title IX and VAWA compliance. Ultimately, both ensure Complainants and Respondents have a full understanding of their rights, the institution's responsibilities, and transparency with navigating the institution's process for resolving reported sex offenses.

POLICY TERMINOLOGY AND SEX OFFENSE DEFINITIONS

There is certain terminology used in both the policy and procedures that are important for you to know. Additionally, members of the Title IX team will use these terms in their written and verbal communication. Below is a chart of the most common terminology used and its definition:

Term

Long-term Remedies/Other actions

Following the conclusion of the resolution process, and in addition to any sanctions implemented, the Title IX Coordinator may implement additional long-term remedies or actions with respect to the parties and/or the campus community that are intended to stop the harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation, remedy the effects, and prevent reoccurrence.

PREVENTION AND AWARENESS PROGRAMS

Bystander Intervention: The College offers bystander intervention programming to all new students in an effort to ensure that each member of the campus community is invested in creating a safe campus environment. Program participants are instructed on safe options for preventing harm and intervening when a risk of sexual misconduct exists.

VAWA Training: Incoming students and new employees are provided with education and training on awareness and risk reduction of sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking and consent in compliance with the Violence Against Women Act.

Ongoing Campaigns: Ongoing awareness and prevention campaigns are provided throughout the school year to students, faculty and staff. All campus activities and programs are communicated through campus email accounts, on the College website, through the Regroup communication app, or checking the various social media pages for the College.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

Can an attorney be my Advisor?

Yes. You have the right to an Advisor of your choice, which can include an attorney.

Will my parents/guardians find out about this incident?

It depends. If you are a minor, members of the Title IX team have certain mandatory reporting obligations, which may include notifying your parents/guardians of the incident.

If you are not a minor, this incident is a part of your education record, which is protected under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). This means that your education record cannot be shared with anyone with whom you have not given Garrett College permission to share.

Do I have to resolve this through a formal grievance process?

No. You have options. If you are a Complainant and wish to resolve informally, you must first make a formal complaint. Upon receipt of this formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will provide you with additional information. Any party who wishes to resolve the matter informally should contact the Title IX Coordinator. All parties must agree, in writing, to informally resolve for this to be an option.

Is there a time limit on when I can report?

There is no statute of limitations on when a complaint can be filed however there are certain jurisdictional requirements that must be met to pursue a formal grievance process under Title IX.

Will I get in more trouble if I was drinking underage during the incident?

The College maintains a policy of offering parties and witnesses amnesty from minor policy violations such as underage consumption of alcohol or the use of illicit drugs related to the incident.

What happens if the Respondent fails to comply with the sanctions?

Respondents are expected to comply with the assigned sanctions, responsive actions, and/or corrective actions within the timeframe specified by the final Decision-maker(s). Failure to abide by the sanction(s)/action(s) imposed by the date specified, whether by refusal, neglect, or any other reason, may result in additional sanction(s)/action(s), including suspension, expulsion, and/or termination.

What happens if the Respondent transfers, leaves, or resigns prior to the conclusion of the formal resolution process?

If a Respondent permanently withdraws or resigns, the resolution process ends with a dismissal, as the College no longer has disciplinary jurisdiction over the withdrawn student or former employee. However, the College will continue to address and remedy any systemic issues or concerns that may have contributed to the alleged violation(s), and any ongoing effects of the alleged harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation.

What if law enforcement is involved?

College action(s) or processes are not typically altered or precluded on the grounds that civil or criminal charges involving the underlying incident(s) have been filed or that criminal charges have been dismissed or reduced. The College may undertake a short delay in its investigation if circumstances require. Communication will be sent to the parties explaining the reason(s) for the delay and the anticipated duration of the delay.

Do I have to be cross-examined during the hearing?

If you want the Decision-Maker(s) to consider any prior statements made or evidence submitted by you, then yes, you must submit to cross-examination during the hearing. You have a choice not to, but your statements and evidence will not be considered by the Decision-maker(s).
